

JOB DESCRIPTION

POST TITLE:	Professor/ Reader in Sociology and Social Policy
POST NUMBER:	T7603
GRADE:	Professor/ Reader
RESPONSIBLE TO:	Dean of School
LOCATION:	School of Social Sciences and Law
JOB PURPOSE:	To undertake research and teaching in Social Policy

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. To develop a programme of research and scholarly activity in sociology and social policy commensurate with the focus of the Social Futures Institute.
2. Provide leadership for the Criminology and Sociology subject group.
3. To contribute to the teaching of sociology and social policy at undergraduate and postgraduate levels.
3. To contribute to the Criminology and Sociology subject group in both administration and key roles/areas e.g. participation in student recruitment activities.
4. To network with external agencies and organisations to promote the research of the School and Institute.
5. To generate significant research and enterprise income in accordance with Institute, School and University protocols.
6. To raise the profile of the Institute and School through research and consultancy and more general external engagement.
7. To enhance the Institute's and School's profiles of research outputs, contributing to the Research Excellence Framework 2020 (UoA 22) and beyond.
8. To contribute to postgraduate and research degree supervision as appropriate.
9. To participate in the development and promotion of new and existing course provision within the School Social Sciences and Law.

10. To undertake such personal development activities as may be identified through the University's staff development scheme and agreed by the Director of the Social Futures Institute and the Dean of School.
11. To adhere to the University's Health and Safety Policy and guidelines.
12. To promote Equality and Diversity for staff and students.
13. To undertake such duties as may arise from changing circumstances and as prescribed by the Dean of the School and by the University.